

Surgical Radiography

Across

2. a surgical procedure to restore the function of a joint (eg: total hip replacement)
3. a qualified surgeon in an accredited surgical educational program (2 words)
7. used to determine the exact location of of foreign bodies
10. time, shielding and _____ are the 3 cardinal principles of radiation protection
14. monitors and coordinates all activities in the OR
15. a device that changes x-ray beams into a visible image (2 words)
17. during a cholecystectomy, this cavity that is insufflated with CO2 through one of the trocars to increase its size
20. a laparoscopic procedure where 3-4 are made in the RUQ

21. OR attire that is changed as needed and to be removed before exiting the OR (2 words)

22. a pulse generator and battery that is generally inserted into the chest wall

25. used to separate sterile from non-sterile areas (2 words)

Down

1. allied health practitioner qualified by academic and clinical education (2 words)

4. they function outside and around the sterile field but do not enter it (3 words)

5. someone who specializes in the art and science of administering anesthesia (2 words)

6. area between the draped patient and instrument table (2 words)

8. responsible for maintaining the integrity, safety, and efficacy of the sterile field

9. a rod inserted in the intramedullary canal to reduce fracture (2 words)

11. a surgical procedure performed to alleviate pain caused by neural impingement

12. worn to protect from body fluids

13. a licensed physician specially trained and qualified to perform surgical procedures

16. the use of rods, plates, and screws to stabilize the surgically altered vertebrae (2 words)

18. provides intraoperative imaging in a variety of examinations with a variety of equipment

19. used to protect workers from unnecessary radiation (2 words)

23. worn in all areas of the OR to contain hair

24. OR attire that is not necessary in semi-restricted areas