

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sustainability CROSSWORDS - fill in the blanks

Across

4. when a resource is "renewable", this means in practice that the of its harvest/use does not exceed that of renewal/self generation/reproduction of stock
5. The maximum sustainable yield is a theoretical concept obtained by a, which can be used as an indication, but in practice does not take into account natural variability
6. Economic development uses natural resources for example in the form ofmaterials for industrial production
8. Ecosystem functioning is based on severalparameters including biotic and abiotic factors

Word Bank

needs raw externalised

depleted
speed
model

10. Economic evaluation of projects should includecosts, which are the costs payed by someone else (the natural environment or people affected even is not directly involved in the project)

Down

1. The oil economy is not sustainable as oil is aresource
2. the tragedy of the commons refers to management ofgoods
3. When a resource isit is no more available for future use
7. sustainable development satisfies the of the current generations, protecting the world for future ones
9. sustainability means that future generations will be left the same amount ofresources, that we currently have

common interdependent nonrenewable natural