

Name: _____

Date: _____

TAXONOMY CROSSWORD

Across

6. Used for the identification of organisms based on a series of choices between characters such as color, shape, size of the organism.

8. This category is in between PHYLUM and ORDER

9. The broadest category of classification. It is the first category.

11. This category comes after Kingdom

13. The second smallest level of classification. The first part of an organisms name in binomial nomenclature.

14. A two word system to name organisms. The first word=Genus, and the second one=Species.

Down

1. The most specific category of classification

2. This category is between CLASS and FAMILY

3. This means "name calling" in Latin

4. Previously the first and largest category in the scientific classification system of organisms (Hint: it is not Domain)

5. The father of Taxonomy; used binomial nomenclature to name different species.

7. The study of general rules of scientific classification (Hint: starts with a T)

10. This means "two names" in Latin

12. This category is the one BEFORE Genus