

Name: _____ Date: _____

THE CHEMISTRY OF SHAMPOOING/ BREAKING DOWN SHAMPOOS AND THIER PURPOSE

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. Shampoo that helps to close the hair cuticle, while balancing the ph of the hair salon | A. Dry shampoo |
| 2. Known as the moisturizing Hampton for the biotin and protein it adds to the hair | B. Keratin protein shampoo |
| 3. Shampoo that must remain on the scalp longer than others to relieve any scalp conditions | C. Balancing shampoo |
| 4. Great for buildup, after swimming, and for after chemical services | D. Medicated shampoo |
| 5. Will wash away excess oiliness while preventing the hair from drying out | E. Conditioning shampoo |
| 6. Designed to repair the hair while strengthening, and nourishing it. | F. Neutralizing shampoo |
| 7. Also known as the powder shampoo, which means it will cleanse hair without soap | G. Color enhancing shampoo |
| 8. Soap free shampoo, known for being sensitive to artificial color | H. Strengthening shampoo |
| 9. Contains volume boosting ingredients, while creating a clean environment for healthy hair growth | I. Clarifying shampoo |
| 10. Designed to re-balanced the ph levels of your hair by neutralizing any alkali and unwanted residues in the hair | J. Sulfate free shampoo |
| 11. Similar to temporary color eliminating unwanted tones in the hair; also brightens the hair while adding a hint of color | K. Shampoo for thinning hair |
| 12. Designed to help strengthen the hair as it cleanse | L. Ph balanced shampoo |