

THE FIRST TWO YEARS: COGNITIVE DEVELOPMENT

Across

2. An opportunity for perception and interaction that is offered by a person, place, or object in the environment is referred to ?
4. A single word that is used to express a complete, meaningful thought is ?
5. Piaget's term for the way infants think—by using their senses and motor skills—during the first period of cognitive development is?
6. What type of amnesia that in which selective events of his/her memory is lost?
7. The repetition of a certain syllabus, such as ba-ba-ba is ?

8. What is the process of becoming accustomed to an object or event through repeated exposure to it, thus becoming less interested in it.

9. The average number of words in a typical sentence, it is often used to indicate how advanced a child's language development is.

10. unconscious or automatic memory that is stored via habits, responses, procedures, and various sensations is called ?

Down

1. What type of amnesia that refers to the belief that infants don't remember nothing until the age of 2?
3. What memory is easy to retrieve on demand?