

THE STEAK

Across

2. he

_____ Stowsher Bill.

4. It would be a week before he could _____ a shovel

6. His wretchedness _____ him.

10. That was harder than any _____, and it seemed almost impossible to face.

11. , he sat down suddenly on a bench, _____ by the thought of the missus sitting up for him

12. he saw the lights and the smiling

13. The doors of the public-house at the corner were _____ wide,

Down

1. He _____ perceptibly,

3. He heard the many voices discussing the fight and the _____ chink of

5. The hunger _____ at the pit of the stomach

7. He had a two-mile _____ home

8. Bill had _____ in the dressing-room

9. even if he could find a job at _____ work