

TKAM Crossword

Across

- 1. verb-to pursue with harassing or oppressive treatment, especially because of religious or political beliefs, ethnic or racial origin, gender identity, or sexual orientation. The Jews were being _____ for their ethnicity.
- 2. (ADJECTIVE)-not pertinent to a particular matter; irrelevant. His _____ questions were always way off topic from the class discussion
- 5. adjective-characterized by stealth; sly and secretive. The _____ furtive was even more sly than a fox.
- 8. (adjective) - not willing to change an opinion or decision; very determined. The _____ little boy was always right in his own mind, even when he was wrong.
- 11. noun-the quality of being believable or worthy of trust. Wikipedia does not have any credibility, because we have no idea who wrote it.

12. noun-widely known. Trump has great _____, he is one of the richest men in the world, and is running for president.

14. verb-to commit theft; steal. In the play Oliver all the boys are taught to _____ or pickpocket.

15. adjective-produced by a distortion or lopsidedness of the facial features. His _____ smile was like that because of an accident he was in.

Down

3. adjective-arousing moral distaste or contempt. The _____ dead body on the floor made the killer morally sick to his stomach.

4. adjective-characterized by great caution, secrecy, etc; furtive. In order to pickpocket you have to be very _____.

6. adjective-in a wild state, especially after escape from captivity or domestication. The _____ bear has just escaped the zoo and is causing havoc in the town.

7. adjective-shortened and detached when played or sung. When all of the _____ songs are combined, they make a really cool song that sums up good music.

9. noun-a gear with a small number of teeth, especially one engaging with a rack or larger gear. Because the _____ in the clock was broken the minute hand would not move.

10. adjective-oxlike; cowlike. The bison is a _____ animal, based on how it acts.

13. noun-a person who is put to death or endures great suffering on behalf of any belief, principle, or cause. In the Bible Stephen is known as the first _____.