

Name: _____

Date: _____

TKT skills

Across

2. materials which are made for L1 speakers

4. materials which are made for L2 speakers

10. to change or shorten some parts of a written text to make it clearer or easier to understand

11. to say or write something that has been read or heard using different words

14. using the correct form of the language (e.g. grammar or phonology)

15. the way the text is organised and presented on a page

17. a sentence which gives the main idea of a paragraph

18. a part of the main skill e.g. skimming is a part of the skill of reading

19. the way ideas in a text are logical and make sense to the reader or listener

20. a technique which uses reading or listening to a text for language learning

Down

1. reading for specific information

3. reading or listening to longer texts which uses a variety of subskills

5. what we do with language e.g. reading or speaking

6. to read a text in order to check whether there are any mistakes (e.g. with grammar, spelling etc.)

7. the way sentences are connected using grammar or lexis

8. speaking & writing

9. reading to find the general idea (gist) of the whole text

12. reading & listening

13. to listen and write down ideas from the text in short form

16. communicating effectively