

TSI Strategies & Vocabulary Words

Across

5. A particular order in which related events, movements, or things follow each other
8. Rewording a text into your own words without shortening it is called
9. Having or showing little or no feeling or emotion
10. To _____ means to read between the lines and piece together the clues given by and author in order to make a reasonable, educated guess and draw a logical conclusion.

11. The subject of a piece of writing is called the

13. To bring decision, to an end

Down

1. is defined as combining a number of different parts or ideas to come up with a new idea or theory
2. Extract (information) from various sources
3. The writer's interpretation of the subject is called the

4. broad statement or an idea that is applied to a group of people or things

6. When you condense the main ideas of a piece of writing down to the most basic components, it is called

7. Relating to or involving general ideas or qualities rather than specific people, objects or actions

12. To express agreement