

Name: _____

Date: _____

TWENTIES

Across

1. time period characterized by isolationism, consumerism, nativism, a growing national popular culture, and challenges to traditional values
2. widespread media, largely driven by the radio, that encouraged consumerism and helped create a more uniform national culture
8. twenties president who didn't say much
13. postwar time of anti-communist hysteria that included increased nativism, race riots, labor union strikes, and terrorist attacks
14. a strong dislike of foreigners; evident during the

15. white terrorist group

16. a term that means "hands off" the economy

Down

3. a surge of black culture centered around literature, music, art, and racial pride that occurred in the 1920s
4. two italians who were executed under dubious circumstances
5. group of authors were critical of society, the events of World War I, and consumerism during the 1920s
6. a culture of buying products that was promoted in the 1920s by advertising, installment plans, and the mass production of cheap goods

7. event in which a teacher was convicted for teaching about evolution; represented the clash of modernist and fundamentalist values
9. the Amendment that banned alcohol
10. federal ban on alcohol
11. manufacturing method, improved by Henry Ford, that made products cheaper, especially the car
12. popular image of the "new woman" of the 1920s that challenged traditional gender roles and morality