

Name: _____

Date: _____

Task 2 Crossword

Across

1. An election in which voters choose candidates to represent each party in a general election
 6. To place special importance or emphasis on something
 8. the most votes among all those running for a political office
 11. A geographic area that contains a specific number of voters
 12. A meeting of political party members to conduct party business
 13. A system of government in which two parties compete for power

15. A series of statements expressing the party's principles, beliefs, and positions on election issues
 16. Representatives from the 50 state party organizations who run a political party

Down

2. an election in which voters need not declare their party preference
 3. Located next to
 4. An association of voters with broad common interests who want to influence or control decision making in government by electing the party's candidates to public office

5. A strong party organization that can control political appointments and deliver votes

7. An election in which only the declared members of a party are allowed to vote for that party's nominees
 9. A political party that challenges the two major parties
 10. To advance cause or an idea
 14. A number that is more than 50 percent of the total