

Technology in Our World

Across

- 4. An acceptance that a statement is true or that something exists
- 5. Existing in or as part of a tradition; long established
- 8. A person of greater age than someone specified
- 9. The method of human communication
- 10. A member of an Indigenous persons of Northern Canada

Down

- 1. The area of land under a ruler or state
- 2. The earth, together with all of its countries, people, and natural features
- 3. The application of scientific knowledge for practical purposes
- 6. A beaten path through rough country such as a forest
- 7. A qualified practitioner of medicine