

Name: _____

Date: _____

Technology in the Classroom

Across

3. The right to produce or reproduce work in any material form whatever.
5. Social media conduct that is inappropriate, ill-advised or hurtful to others.
6. The ability for anyone to use copyrighted material, provided that the use is fair and for valid purpose.
7. The ownership of materials, such as lesson plans, developed by teachers.
8. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram

9. How to properly, professionally and personally communicate electronically.

10. Reading an email message before sending it; checking for tone and fixing mistakes.

Down

1. Example: sharing confidential information about a student on Facebook.
2. Promoting the public interest of accessing works and ensuring that creators are rewarded for the creation of work.
4. Damaging the good reputation of someone.