

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Tell-Tail Heart Homophone Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 3. The narrator waited (for, four) the old man to lie back down.
- 5. The old man was kind (to, too, two) the narrator.
- 7. When the old man sprang up from his bed he could not (see, sea) anything because it was so dark.
- 9. The narrator hid the old man under the floor (board, bored).
- 10. The narrator took a whole (our, hour) to put his head in the old man's bedroom door.

Down

- 1. The narrator killed the (poor, pore, pour) old man.
- 2. The officers walked right (passed, past) the dismembered old man.
- 4. The narrator wanted the officers to (here, hear) how fatigue he was, so invited them in.
- 6. The narrator was the only one who heard the heart (beet, beat).
- 8. The old man had a feeling someone or something was in his room and would not (lay, lie) down.