

Name: _____

Date: _____

Terminology Revision

Across

2. A word which explains the relationship between two subjects or objects.

7. The function of a sentence.

8. A series of one or more clauses which start with a capital letter and finish with a full stop, question mark or exclamation mark.

10. A word which describes an action.

11. A word which add information to a noun.

12. A word which appears before a noun to quantify or qualify it.

Down

1. A word used in place of a noun and which avoids repeating the subject or object of a clause over and over again.

3. The construction of a sentence.

4. A word which joins two or more clauses.

5. A word which describes people, places or things.

6. A word which adds information to a verb.

9. A complete unit of meaning with one verb phrase.