

Name: _____

Date: _____

Terms

Across

2. inflammation of the gray matter of the spinal cord caused by a highly contagious virus

5. occurs when a blood vessel that supplies blood to the brain becomes blocked

7. type of CVA that occurs when a weakened blood vessel ruptures and bleeds into the surrounding tissue of the brain

10. sensation that often occurs before migraine or seizure

13. bruising in the cerebral tissue

14. inflammation of multiple peripheral nerves

17. temporary loss of consciousness due to inadequate blood flow to the brain

18. disruption of electrical activity in the brain produces physical and mental changes

19. temporary or permanent loss of voluntary movement.

20. tumor of the neuroglial tissue

Down

1. an involuntary repetitive trembling of the body limbs

3. disorder that affects movement and muscle tone

4. paralysis of one side of the body

6. pain that can spread to more parts of the brain

8. paralysis of one side of the body

9. death of brain tissue that occurs when an arterial blockage or arterial rupture prevents blood flow to the brain

11. dilation of a blood vessel in the cerebrum

12. sudden abnormal involuntary contraction of the muscles

15. controls the facial muscles

16. congenital hernia in which the meninges protrude through an opening of the skull or spinal cord