

Terms and Titles in Modern Fantasy

Across

2. the type of fiction when stories focus on what could be or what might have been
3. when the theme is implied through actions and events in the story
6. when the theme is directly stated by the author
9. when the hero is a part of the ordinary world then enters a supernatural one
12. the name of the land in the classic "Alice's Adventures in _____"
14. fiction that describes a world where people might live someday

15. key ideas that hold a story together

16. a blend of fantasy and realism
17. a traditional story that includes an unexpected twist
18. a genre that includes futuristic elements
19. J.K. Rowling's book is called "Harry Potter and the _____"
20. a classic story about a bear who loves his honey

Down

1. stories with animals that have human characteristics
4. a classic story by Jonathan Swift

5. another name for a series format when one book is linked to another
7. a type of fantasy that is set in a specific time period
8. stories that depict a dark future world
10. stories with elements outside of the realm of possibility
11. the main theme that the reader constructs in a story
13. main character in C.S. Lewis' story "The _____, the Witch and the Wardrobe"