

Name: _____

Terms

Across

4. The total system of ideas, values, behaviours, and attitudes of a society commonly shared by most members of society
8. In Freudian theory, the part of the psyche associated with instinctual, repressed, or antisocial desires, usually sexual or aggressive.
9. Universal Symbols that tend to reappear over time that include models of people, behaviours and personalities were what Jung considered to be
10. An inter-disciplinary theory that is rooted in the belief that it is impossible to have any true knowledge of the world. Post-Modernism rejects the idea of objective truth and promotes the concept that what we “know” about the world is based on our own construction, created by society

12. The interdisciplinary study of how language influences social life (two words)

Down

1. A branch of psychology based on the idea of balancing a person’s psyche would allow the person to reach his or her full potential (two words)
2. A mental disorder involving anxiety or fear (two words)
3. The idea that gender norms are created by culture and not biology. It also encompasses how gender, race, class, ethnicity, and sexual orientation is constructed in various societies (two words)
5. Evaluation of other cultures according to preconceptions originating in the standards and customs of one’s own culture
6. An individual’s characteristic pattern of thinking, feeling, or acting is known as the

7. A set of words to describe an uncomfortable or inappropriate concept in a polite or socially acceptable fashion. These expressions often demonstrate the way language is revealing of culture.

11. He designed a Classical Conditioning Experiment that includes: Unconditioned response, Unconditioned stimulus, Conditioned stimulus, Conditioned response