

Name: _____

Test #1 Review

Across

3. ____ is a starchy food associated with Congolese cuisine.
4. In the city, a food desert is an area where 33% of the population lives more than a _____ mile from the nearest large grocery store.
8. This is an area that has limited access to affordable and nutritious food (2 words, no space)
9. Many cultural dishes use ingredients that are _____ in the region from which they originated.
11. Fish was also part of the South Korean school lunch. Fish is also part of many Korean dishes. This is likely because South Korea is surrounded by the _____ Ocean.

12. According to the NYTimes article, birria is a stew originating from _____.
13. The story about how chopsticks are used differently in heaven and hell is an example of _____.
14. Peter _____ was the name of the photographer who took photos of families and the food they consumed in 1 week.

Down

1. This is a conclusion based upon observations.
2. The Brazilian school lunch included 1 piece of bread and a 4 oz garden salad. This is an example of a _____ observation.

5. The school lunch from Greece included a white yogurt with red pomegranate seeds. This is an example of a _____ observation.
6. While Indian cuisine is typically eaten with your hands, in many American restaurants it is expected that diners use a fork. This may be an example of cultural _____ of food.
7. The school lunch from Spain included shrimp and Spain abuts the ocean. This demonstrates how _____ plays a role in cultural cuisine.
10. Chopsticks are an example of Chinese _____.