

Name: _____

Date: _____

Test HEALTH puzzle

Across

- 2. Pertaining to the lungs.
- 5. A colorless, disk-shaped cell in the blood that is necessary for clotting.
- 7. A ringing in the ears or some other sound that has no external cause.
- 8. The bony socket that holds the eyeball.
- 12. An abnormal but harmless mass of tissue, usually nerve cells.
- 13. Abbreviation for cardiopulmonary resuscitation, a combination of chest compressions and mouth-to-mouth breathing that keep oxygenated blood circulating to the brain and tissues.
- 15. A period of time in which a sick person is kept away from others to prevent the spread of disease.
- 16. A general feeling of illness that can be a sign of disease.
- 17. A gland in the abdomen that produces digestive enzymes and hormones.
- 19. Any process that requires oxygen. Often used to describe a form of exercise, aerobic exercise.
- 20. A poison, usually one produced by a living organism.
- 27. An infected, diseased, or wounded area of tissue.
- 28. The large bone of the calf, or shinbone.
- 30. A nerve cell.
- 31. An abnormal fibrous growth caused by a viral infection.
- 32. Abbreviation for rapid eye movement, which occurs during a period of sleep characterized by intense brain activity, often associated with dreams.
- 35. The junction between two neurons, across which chemical neurotransmitters carry messages.
- 36. Blood that leaks out of blood vessels and collects in the body.
- 38. Movement of a body part, such as an arm or leg, away from the center of the body.
- 39. An unusually hard or thick scar that forms after surgery or an injury.
- 40. Harmless; often used to refer to a tumor that is not cancerous and does not usually spread.
- 41. A hardened layer of plaque that builds up on teeth.
- 42. Abbreviation for magnetic resonance imaging—a scan that creates detailed pictures of internal organs.
- 46. The popular term for muscle and ligament damage resulting from rapid and extreme extension and flexion of the neck.
- 47. The area in the center of the retina that produces sharp, clear central vision and allows one to see fine detail.
- 48. The upper part of the small intestine.
- 49. Pertaining to the kidneys.
- 50. The larger triangular bone at the base of the spine.

- 54. Having to do with blood vessels and circulation.
 - 55. The return of symptoms and disease after a person seems to have recovered.
 - 56. A natural substance found in green leafy vegetables.
 - 57. Trigh bone.
 - 58. When all or part of the body doesn't get enough oxygen.
- Down
- 1. A flexible, stretchy protein found in skin and connective tissue.
 - 3. A state of lethargy and unresponsiveness.
 - 4. Sudden, severe confusion that occurs because of a mental or physical illness.
 - 6. A skin condition that enlarges blood vessels in the face, causing redness of the nose and other parts of the face.
 - 9. An abnormal lateral, or sideways, curvature of the spine.
 - 10. A simple sugar found in corn syrup, honey, and many sweet fruits.
 - 11. An involuntary muscle contraction.
 - 14. A device that delivers an electric shock to the heart to restore normal rhythm. Used to treat cardiac arrest and other dangerous heart rhythm problems.
 - 18. The body's ability to resist infection and disease.
 - 21. Structures on chromosomes that are passed from parent to child. The basic unit of material that passes traits from parent to child.
 - 22. The underlying abnormalities that contribute to or are characteristic of a disease.
 - 23. A small rounded bump or knot of tissue.
 - 24. A form of arthritis that occurs when uric acid builds up in the joints. The big toe, knee, and ankle joints are most often affected.
 - 25. A condition in which areas of the skin are dry, itchy, red, and cracked. Also known as atopic dermatitis.
 - 26. An itchy condition of the scalp caused by a fungal infection.
 - 29. Movement of a body part toward or across the midline.
 - 33. The unit for measuring the amount of energy in food.
 - 34. One of the three major nutrients, along with carbohydrates and proteins.
 - 37. A temporary pause in breathing during sleep that can be very brief or can last so long that the amount of oxygen in the blood drops dangerously low.
 - 43. Stiff connective tissue that provides support to other tissues and cushions joints.
 - 44. An itchy rash of usually short duration.

- 45. A sleep disorder that causes extreme sleepiness and uncontrollable sleep attacks, making a person fall asleep at inappropriate times during the day.
- 51. A small, fleshy flap of tissue that hangs from the back of the throat over the root of the tongue.
- 52. A junction in the body where bones are linked together.
- 53. A break in the skin or other surface that often occurs along with inflammation, infection, or cancerous growth.

Word Bank

pathology	defibrillator	fat	rosacea	whiplash	cartilage	pulmonary	REM
ganglion	tinnitus	adduction	eczema	joint	orbit	tartar	nodule
quarantine	narcolepsy	Abduction	ringworm	platelet	synapse	hematoma	tibia
aerobic	macula	vascular	hypoxia	lesion	duodenum	spasm	apnea
immunity	CPR	fructose	hives	uvula	benign	elastin	pancreas
stupor	MRI	ulcer	gene	femur	sacrum	keloid	scoliosis
wart	lutein	neuron	calorie	gout	toxin	relapse	renal
delirium	malaise						