

Name: _____

Date: _____

Test Infection Control Unit

Across

5. single-celled organisms often found in decayed materials, bird feces, and contaminated water
6. an area where the causative can live
8. yeasts and molds are two common kinds of this simple, plant-like organism
9. parasitic organisms that cannot live outside the cells of another organism
10. the use of microorganisms, or biologic agents, as weapons to infect humans, animals, or plants

Down

1. this infection occurs when body's defenses are weak
2. simple single-celled organisms that multiply rapidly, are classified by shape, and killed by antibiotics
3. this infection originates from within the body, like tumors
4. destroys all microbes including spores and viruses
7. not considered living but can cause disease and cannot reproduce unless inside another living cell

Word Bank

Fungi

Opportunistic

Endogenous

Reservoir

Bacteria

Sterilization

Protozoa

Rickettsiae

Bioterrorism

Viruses