

Name: _____

Date: _____

Test The Nation

Across

7. rephrase the message
 10. speaking refers to how fast or slow you speak
 12. refers to anxiety related to communication that occurs in a particular situation and time
 13. keyword and phrase outline that helps you deliver your speech.
 14. how loud or soft your voice
 15. provide evidence or support for a main idea

16. noise stemming from our psychological states

Down

1. primarily physiological and occurs mostly at the receiving stage
 2. general tendency to experience anxiety related to communication
 3. speaker has little to no time to prepare for a speech
 4. one-sentence summary of the central idea
 5. age, gender, race, socioeconomic

6. information-retrieval experts
 8. verbal and nonverbal signals we send
 9. takes several months to years and ensures that the information that is published has been vetted and approved by numerous experts on the subject.
 11. fear or anxiety experienced by a person due to real or perceived communication with another person or persons.

Word Bank

State CA
 Peer Review
 Rate
 Reference Librarians

Demographics
 Paraphrase
 BackChannelCues
 Psychological Noise

Speaking Outline
 Discriminative Listening
 Subordinate Points
 Thesis Statement

Impromptu Delivery
 CA
 Volume
 Trait CA