

Textiles A-E

Across

3. a decoration made by cutting shapes out of fabric and attaching them on top of another piece of fabric
 10. a method of cleaning fabric using solvents instead of water
 12. studying something carefully to discover and evaluate its features
 13. a person who buys something to use themselves
 14. how a fabric falls or hangs
 15. things that can be stretched and return to their original shape
 18. a non-woven fabric made from fibres held together by glue stitching or heat

19. a list of characteristics that a product should have

20. fibres and fabrics that will soak up moisture

Down

1. a yarn made by combining two or more types of fibre
 2. a finish applied to fabrics using heavy heated rollers which squash the fabric, making it smooth and shiny
 4. taking something to pieces to see how it was put together
 5. producing something with the minimum amount of time, energy or materials
 6. someone who's paying for a service such as clothing design

7. the way something has been put together

8. something that can be broken down by bacteria and other organisms and will break down quickly in landfill sites

9. the production method used to make a specific number of identical products

11. describes an object or material that is easily broken or damaged

16. pre-manufactured parts that are added to fabrics to make textile products

17. computer-aided design directly linked to computer-aided manufacture