

Name: _____

Date: _____

Textual Evidence

Across

1. Point of View: They were all excited Winter Break was about to start
 4. Uses the signal words "for example"
 6. Author's purpose for musicals, plays, or movies
 8. Historical text most commonly is written in....
 10. Jane and Betty may be twins, but they are so different. Jane has blonde hair and really outgoing, while Betty has red hair and keeps to herself.

13. Point of view: You can't get away from the holiday extravagance

14. Disney is so much fun, but so is Universal. They both have so many fun rides.

Down

2. Point of view: I can't wait for Christmas

3. practice of trying to dominate or control other countries

5. a deal to stop fighting and talk about peace

7. Author's Purpose example commerial

9. act of conducting a formal discussion or meeting between different countries

11. a person who does not believe in war or violence as a way of solving a problem

12. Author's Purpose: Christmas trees originally were imported from Germany