

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Age of reason

Across

2. The practice of checking printed materials or media to forbid, modify or delete information.

4. A monarchy in which the king is the only authority and has absolute political power over people.

7. A famous French philosopher who advocated of freedom of religion, freedom of expression, and separation of church and state.

10. Elegant man who takes care of his appearance, his manners and has an enlightened mind.

11. In the early 1700s a person who attempts to understand the world through reason for the liberty, progress, and human happiness.

12. A political regime ruled by an authoritarian ruler who is inspired by the ideas of the Enlightenment philosophers to reform his country.

13. A meeting of prominent writers, poets, artists, musicians, and political leaders who discussed their ideas.

14. A collection of books that would bring together the Enlightened thinking of the time.

Down

1. A government run by the citizen, or people who legally live there.

3. An association that gathers scientists, artists and people of letters.

5. A famous French philosopher who believed in Separation of Powers and Check and Balances

6. A current of thought in the 18th century that regroups scholars and thinkers wanting to guide humanity on the path of happiness and progress.

8. A place where well-educated and well-to-do came to learn and where students came to demonstrate their intellectual talents.

9. A monarchy in which the king's power is limited by the existence of an assembly.

Word Bank

Encyclopedia

Coffe-house

Absolute monarchy

Philosopher

Montesquieu

Salon

Parliamentary

Democracy

Academy

Dandy

Enlightenment

Voltaire

Censorship

Enlightened despots