

The Bronze Bow

Across

1. an episode of irregular or unpermitted fighting, especially between small outlying parts of armies or fleets

4. become aware or conscious of (something); come to realize or understand

7. a person large and strong; heavily built.

9. the kitchen in a ship or aircraft

12. distract someone from something

13. furiously angry or dark bluish gray in color

Down

2. something that confines or restrains

3. begin to grow or increase rapidly; flourish

5. a plan, sketch, or rough drawing

6. a noisy disturbance or quarrel

8. gloomy and drab

10. to draw on with promise of pleasure or gain

11. something of little importance or value