

The Constitution

Across

- 2. which amendment allows women to vote?
- 4. which part of the constitution consists of the 27 amendments
- 10. who has the power to veto
- 11. who appoints ambassadors, justices of the Supreme Court, and members of the council?
- 12. Does it take more votes to purpose or ratify the constitution?
- 14. what is it called to be tried for the same crime twice?

- 15. which amendment gives US citizens their 5 basic freedoms?
- 16. which level of law is the highest?
- 17. where do bills for taxing have to begin?

Down

- 1. what is the speech that the president gives to address his plans and polices for the year?
- 3. if the president dies who would take over their place?
- 5. who can declare war?

- 6. what gives congress the power to do what is "necessary and proper" to carry out its other powers leaving room for change in the future?
- 7. what are the first ten amendments called?
- 8. How much of each house of congress is needed to ratify an amendment?
- 9. what is the introduction of the constitution called?
- 13. what allows the government to search one's property?