

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Davinci Code

Across

2. Captain Bezu Fache of the French Judicial Police was commonly referred to as _____ by his familiars.

4. Robert and Sophie discover that the final clue to the location of The Grail is hidden in the tomb of which Holy Knight?

8. The albino Silas follows his own mantra believing that "Pain is good", with what device does he inflict this pain upon himself with?

11. Langdon believes that the name for the Mona Lisa is derived from the ancient civilization of _____'s God and Goddess of fertility.

12. The _____ was an invention of Leonardo Davinci's used to transport messages in a secure method over long distances.

16. Saunier hid clues in _____, Sophie's favourite painting.

17. What phrase is left by Saunier as a clue and anagram for another Da Vinci painting, The Madonna of Rocks?

20. Where do Sophie and Robert agree to meet at the end of the novel?

21. Sophie's bloodline is revealed to be _____, descendants of the blood line of Jesus and Mary.

22. The poem, inscribed on the back of the box retrieved from Saunier's bank vault, is decoded using what subsequent code?

23. What is the name of Sir Leigh Teabing's residence located in Versailles?

24. Sophie and Robert are smuggled out of the Swiss bank past French officials by _____, the bank's president.

Down

1. The number 1.618 or PHI was significant in that it was a symbol of _____.

3. Jacques Saunier was the head of a legendary organization known as _____.

5. The ancient brotherhood of knights known as The Priory of Sion once guarded what incredible secret?

6. In his desperate attempt to flee the police, who does Silas fatally injure?

7. Bishop Aringarosa meets with the Pope at _____, the Pope's summer residence.

9. What are the set of numbers that marked Sauniers account in the Swiss bank known as?

10. The myserious Teacher is revealed to be _____.

13. The pentacle or pentagram was commonly misinterpreted as being used for devil worship when in fact is symbolized the worship of _____.

14. In the end, after deciphering Jacques Saunier's final poem, Robert discovers what he believes to be the location of The Grail. Where is it?

15. What was the ritual that Sophie witnessed her grandfather participating in?

18. As Langdon and Teabing explain to Sophie, the Holy Grail is not a series of documents but in fact a woman, hidden in Da Vinci's famous painting of The Last Supper. Who is this woman?

19. What ingrediant does The Teacher use to poison Remy with?