

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Endocrine System

Across

2. _____ hormone released by the posterior pituitary gland helps to stimulate contractions of the uterus during childbirth.

4. A hypofunctioning adrenal cortex may lead to a bronzing of the skin, low blood pressure, and hypoglycemia otherwise known as _____ disease.

7. Hyperthyroidism may cause one to have bulging of the eyeballs, a goiter, increased blood pressure, and hyperglycemia otherwise called _____ disease.

8. Hyperfunctioning of the pituitary gland in adulthood that causes an overgrowth of the bones of the face, hands, and feet is called _____.

9. I am secreted by the pineal gland to help make one fall asleep. I am _____.

10. This syndrome that is caused by the hypersecretion of the adrenal gland may cause one to have a buffalo hump, excessive hair growth, and to bruise easily.

11. _____ is known as the disappearing gland that helps with the body's immunity.

12. The _____ is located behind the stomach and act as both an exocrine and endocrine gland.

Down

1. The _____ hormone that is secreted by the anterior pituitary gland helps with the production of estrogen in females and stimulate sperm production in males.

3. The Bcells of the pancreas help produce _____ which helps regulate one's blood sugar.

5. _____ hormone helps with the production of milk after childbirth and breast development.

6. Hyperfunctioning of the pituitary during preadolescence that may cause one to be 8ft tall is called _____.