

The Executive Branch

Across

2. 435 House members, 100 Senators, and three votes from Washington D.C.
 5. who is the current Vice President
 7. what elections decide who is going to represent the party
 10. How many years does a president have to live in the United States?

12. The president of the United States must be a U.S.
 13. What is the meeting held by political parties called
 14. what serves as the pep rally for the upcoming election

Down

1. what do nominees do once selected to represent for the election
 3. The people cast their vote for President on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

4. This is the official ceremony in which the President is sworn in
 6. serves as the president of the senate
 8. You can call it what you like, the Head of State, the Commander-in-Chief
 9. what must you be known as to run for president?
 11. what article are the powers of the president and Vice President listed

Word Bank

president	primaries	electoral college	Vice President national convention	mike pence	Fourteen	two general election	caucus	campaign	nominee
inauguration	Citizen		