

The Fairest of them all ORANGE ball

Across

1. This number falls just below 12 and the big hand and little hand finally align. You do remember how to tell time?
6. The color that is a product of mixing red and yellow together.
10. Pricks her finger on the spindle of a spinning wheel and Maleficent's prophecy is fulfilled.
11. This month is known for pumpkins, candy, trick-or-treaters, and ghosts.
12. This is what you do each year when a happy or memorable event occurs, such as a birthday or anniversary.

Down

2. These usually come twice a year, but on this team you receive one a month from a peer. Although you don't know who, they bring you these to give you cheer!
3. Cross your heart and hope to die, or sometimes you use your pinky, these are definite agreements you make with somebody.
4. Known as the fairest in the land, the evil queen attempts to kill her with a poisoned apple, but fails

5. At this event a veil is her hat, a bouquet in her hands, and her true love waits at the end of the aisle.
7. A cruelly malicious person who is involved in or devoted to wickedness or crime. One of these is present in every fairytale story.
8. It might be green, silver, copper, or gold; the more you have the more secrets you might be told - use it wisely as it will determine your ultimate wealth.
9. The person who is guilty for the type of mystery we will be solving.