

Name: _____

Date: _____

The French Revolution

Across

3. A promise made by the members of the National Assembly to stay together until they had written a constitution for France

6. The social classes in France

13. A combination of the absolute monarchy and feudalism in France; it included the three estates

14. They consisted of the Nobles; they received special privileges and paid no direct taxes to the king

19. This group hated the king, wanted drastic and sweeping changes and advocated the use of violence in the name of the revolution

20. They consisted of the Roman Catholic Clergy; they received special privileges and paid no direct taxes

21. This was legislative branch of the government; it proclaimed an end to the absolute monarchy and the start of a representative government

23. A major change

24. Robespierre's attempt to erase all traces of the monarchy, nobility and the Catholic Church

25. A radical supporter of the French Revolution who used his newspaper to demand more blood; he was eventually murdered

Down

1. A machine used to behead people; it was suppose to make death quick and painless

2. A medieval fort and prison in Paris used to store gun powder

4. The radical leader during the French Revolution responsible for the Reign of Terror; he wanted to create a Republic of Virtue

5. The excessively violent period of time during the French Revolution under the rule of Robespierre

7. They were the urban poor; they were the cooks/servants who were paid low wages and were often out of work

8. This group liked the king, wanted no more changes and was opposed to violence

9. They were the urban middle-class; they were the merchants/artisans and were well-educated and often wealthy

10. They consisted of the bourgeoisie, the sans-culottes and the peasants; they paid high taxes and had no special privileges

11. He was the king of France at the start of the revolution; he was weak and indecisive

12. The wave of senseless panic that rolled through France

15. Hoping to spread their revolutionary ideas, France voted to declare war on this country

16. They were the rural poor; they were the farmers who paid about half of their income in taxes to the nobles, the church and other agents of the king

17. The legislative branch of the French government prior to the French Revolution

18. She was the queen of France at the start of the revolution; she was from Austria and spent too much money on herself

22. This group could live with or without the king, wanted some additional changes and supported violence only if it was justified