

The Gay Bomb

Across

- 1. What award were the researchers that conceptualized the gay bomb given in 2007?
- 2. These were suggested additions to the gay bomb despite minimal support for this idea.
- 4. What form would the bomb take once deployed?
- 8. This proposal has an unofficial website called _____.
- 9. _____ Hammond, of the organization in #29, believes that the gay bomb was considered more seriously than the Pentagon has let on.
- 10. What state was this research initially conducted in?
- 11. Another bomb included was one that made those in contact with the gas extremely sensitive to the _____.
- 18. How many pages was the initial proposal?
- 20. Don't _____ Don't Tell was the compromise the president in #31 enacted that allowed gay people in the military.
- 22. The discovery of this proposal inspired a _____ based on the concept.
- 24. The idea was pitched to the National Academy of _____ in 2002 and kickstarted other strange chemical warfare strategies.
- 26. This bomb was described as completely _____.
- 27. The Pentagon insisted that their consideration of the gay bomb was _____.

- 28. What year was this bomb proposed?
 - 29. What department of the U.S. government researched it?
 - 30. What did most people regard the gay bomb as?
 - 37. Who was the president of the U.S. when this idea was proposed?
 - 38. The website in #37 uses the slogan "Make _____ Not War."
 - 39. The _____ bomb was also inspired by the gay bomb, which caused severe bad breath.
 - 40. What is the main "ingredient" in the bomb that would cause the desired effect?
- Down
- 3. What government organization was the answer to #4 a predecessor to?
 - 5. The bomb would _____ soldiers, not kill them.
 - 6. The prize in #23 is a _____ award for bizarre scientific achievements that "first make people laugh, and then make them think."
 - 7. The bomb would make the soldiers it was dropped on to become what?
 - 12. The bomb would serve to damage _____ of the enemy soldiers affected by it.
 - 13. This is an example of a(n) _____ weapon.
 - 14. The initial research conducted at the _____ Laboratory.

- 15. The plans for the gay bomb were discovered by the _____ Project, an organization that tracks military spending.
- 16. The bomb was only _____ and not actually attempted.
- 17. The bomb, in theory, would cause enemy soldiers' units to _____.
- 19. How expensive was the bomb to be?
- 21. The bombs mentioned in #20 and #21 were to identify enemies based on their bad _____.
- 23. These strange chemical warfare strategies included the "sting me" bomb that would release a gas whose scent would attract swarms of _____.
- 25. Who was responsible for #34?
- 31. Also influenced by the gay bomb, was the "Who? Me?" bomb, which caused _____.
- 32. The awards mentioned in #23 are hosted by the Annals of _____ Research, a comedic scientific journal.
- 33. _____ concerning homosexuality in the military seemingly provided justification for the gay bomb.
- 34. Research funding was for "harassing, _____, and 'bad guy' -identifying chemicals."
- 35. How many years would this project have taken?
- 36. The gay bomb and all other bomb proposals mentioned were rejected and never received federal _____.