

The Haunting of Hill House

Across

5. A style of clothing, architecture, art, and writing
 7. Freedom from sin, guilt, or moral wrong
 10. The popular television series which follows two brothers who hunt horrific monsters
 12. The phenomenons in Hill House test the characters
 13. The apparition of a living person, a double
 19. To keep in close confinement
 21. A place where one often feels a sense of belonging and comfort
 26. Fixture outside a home often associated with wealth and status (two words)
 27. Morally depraved, bad, wicked, vicious
 28. The object Eleanor uses to take control of her own life
 29. The state of being engrossed in something
 32. The source of Eleanor's disposition
 33. The color of blood
 34. The state of being able to act without hindrance or restraint; liberty of action
 35. Reach for the ____
 36. A board used to connect with spirits
 37. The psychic ability Eleanor is assumed to have

39. Characterized by excessive or undue awareness of oneself, one's appearance, or one's actions; acutely aware of oneself as an object of observation by others, esp. in a way which causes discomfort or embarrassment
 40. The literary technique Shirley Jackson used in her description of Hill House

Down

1. Restriction, limitation
 2. The popular horror film series, ____ Activity
 3. Children are often said to have more of this than adults
 4. The character who acts as the father figure in Hill House
 6. An item of clothing that Eleanor associates her identity with
 8. Substance in the human body associated with circulation
 9. To cause to evaporate or disappear
 11. The part of Hill House where most of the discussion takes place between the characters
 14. This character could be described as Eleanor's double
 15. Amongst other things, Eleanor was in search of this emotion
 16. Eleanor's mother had a ____ effect on her life
 17. The male double of Eleanor's mother
 18. An item used in conjunction with a spirit board
 20. Unsettling, eerie, uncomfortably strange or unfamiliar

22. A sensory feeling often associated with the presence of ghosts
 23. A unit consisting of two parents and their children (two words)
 24. An emotion caused by the sense of impending danger, or by the prospect of some possible evil
 25. Isolated, lonely, solitary
 30. The sameness of a person or thing at all times or in all circumstances; the condition of being a single individual; the fact that a person or thing is itself and not something else; individuality, personality
 31. The act of dying by your own hand
 38. Physically repulsive