

The Importance of Being Earnest

Across

5. Cecily is _____ to Algernon.
 7. Cecily and Gwendolen repeatedly refer to evidence written in their _____.
 10. Algernon's sickly "friend"
 13. The man who adopted Jack was Cecily's _____.
 14. Miss Prism is Cecily's _____.
 15. Because this play humorously criticizes something about society, the play can be considered a _____.

16. Algernon and Lane have a minor crisis regarding _____ sandwiches in Act I.

17. Cecily's age

18. This play is set in the late _____ era.

19. Gwendolen insists that she must marry a man by the name of _____.

Down

1. the food that Algernon and Jack fight over near the end of Act II

2. As a baby, Jack was found abandoned at a train station in a _____.

3. Jack and Algernon try to have _____ re-christen each of them with the name Ernest.

4. how Jack and Gwendolen are related

6. Cecily is Jack's _____.

8. Jack's birth-given first and middle name

9. Gwendolen's mother is _____.

11. Jack's relation to Algernon

12. Algernon's servant