

The Inquisition

Across

3. A method of torture that involves crushing the accused's fingers.

12. Someone who practices heresy.

13. Heretics that practiced Dualism.

14. What Muslims called Muslim Spain. Also known as Al-Andalus.

15. A method of torture that involves the accused being forced to sit on a iron chair with spikes.

16. "Reconquering"

Down

1. The church's attempt to find and suppress heresy.

2. The head of the Roman catholic Church.

4. Often referred to as "La Católica", meaning the catholic.

5. A method of torture that involves the accused being forced to sit on wooden log with spikes.

6. A pre-Protestant Christian movement that lived in and preached poverty.

7. The belief that there are two gods, one good and one bad.

8. King of Aragon, King of Sicily and King of Castile

9. The refusal to accept one or more truths of the faith which are required for Catholic belief.

10. The judges of the Inquisition

11. A method of torture that involves funneling water down the accused's mouth.

Word Bank

Reconquista

Watercure

QueenIsabella

IronChair

Andalusia

Thumbscrews

Inquisition

Cathars

WoodenHorse

Waldensians

Heresy

Pope

Inquisitors

Dualism

KingFerdinand

Heretic