

The Laboratory

Across

2. The name of the victim
4. What does she long the death of the kings partner
7. When did she go stalk them
8. What era is the poem set in
12. What country is the poem set in
13. What is the language style of the poem
14. What safety ware is she wearing at the start
15. What is she going to put the poison in
17. What does she state she is carrying

18. Where the poison is being prepared

20. What is she mentally gaining that is giving her such pleasure

21. What country is the poem set in

Down

1. What tone is she using when she quotes ' which is the poison to poison her prithee ?'

3. What emotion is she feeling towards the end

5. What is referring to when she quotes 'such gold oozing'

6. What is she willing to give the apothecary as a token of appreciation-

9. What do people expect the protagonist do actually be doing

10. What is the main theme of the poem

11. What is the modern term equivalent to an apothecary

16. What figurative language is 'what a wild crowd of invisible pleasure '

19. How much did she pay for the poison