

The Light in the Forest

Across

5. Haystack

6. The prickly outer shell of the chestnut.

7. The curved handle of a mowing scythe.

9. A valuable shrub whose bark has curative powers.

10. A wool blanket worn as a cloak.

11. A long pillow or cushion that extends across the head of a bed to support the head and neck.

12. The sycamore or plant tree which produced a button-shaped blossom.

13. The removal of skin and hair from a human skull.

Down

1. A meeting lodge where tribal elders and war chiefs conduct discussions.

2. Creeping forest heather that blooms pink and white and produces red berries.

3. A small ceramic vessel used to collect body fluids during bloodletting.

4. A four-footed mammal akin to the weasel.

8. A student worker or beginner at a trade who labors without pay.