

"The Lottery" by Shirley Jackson Vocabulary

Across

- 2. all the time; seemingly without stopping
- 4. equipment consisting of miscellaneous articles
- 9. be earlier in time
- 11. with sadness
- 14. full of or showing high-spirited merriment
- 15. in an easily irritated or annoyed manner

- 16. at the proper time
- 17. drop to a lower level, as in one's morals or standards
- 18. in a rebellious manner
- 19. release from something that holds fast or entangles

- 5. hasty and without attention to detail; not thorough
- 6. anything that is cast aside
- 7. in a serious and sober manner
- 8. a low continuous indistinct sound
- 10. an act or expression of criticism
- 12. in an abundant manner
- 13. showing signs of wear and tear

Down

- 1. the prescribed procedure for conducting religious ceremonies
- 3. full of rough and exuberant animal spirits

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------------|-------------|------------|------------|---------------|
| duly | reprimand | boisterous | petulantly | paraphernalia |
| interminably | disengage | jovial | ritual | precede |
| murmur | perfunctory | shabby | profusely | lapse |
| defiantly | regretfully | discard | gravely | |