

The Lunacy of the English Language

Across

- 2. The structure in which bees store food
4. Large succulent melon
7. If a candy cane is shaped like a cane, why isn't this shaped like a nut?
14. Driving closely behind another vehicle
15. A task which is easy to accomplish
17. Expensive, posh
18. A slightly opened door
19. To spill the...

20. Extremely large, "out of this world"

21. When an object slips out of your hands

Down

- 1. An extremely long way to say shorten
3. Sugary, buttery biscuit
5. Pointing device used on a computer
6. Extortion, threatening an individual in order to receive a form of payment
8. A parent's father

9. Cosmetic products used to "enhance" the features of an individual's face

10. Top prize, to hit the...

11. An individual who rides a motorcycle

12. Someone who gets up before seven

13. To listen to a private conversation

16. Attractive piece of metal