

Name: _____

The Migratory Fishery

Across

1. Peter Easton commanded 40 ships and used _____ as his home base.
5. Because of the Fishermen's Union Trading Company, fish _____ were no longer needed.
8. English fishermen used _____ with baited hooks to catch cod.
11. _____ bought the title 'the Marquis of Savoy.'
13. Merchants were always afraid that _____ would steal their ships and fishing gear.
14. Cured fish from Newfoundland was sent to Spain and _____.
16. Merchants gave the small number of fishermen who lived in Newfoundland supplies on _____.
17. England traded food and clothing with Spain for _____.
19. _____ were valuable because they covered up the taste of rotting food.
22. Poorly cured saltfish was sold to plantation owners in the _____ for sugar, rum and molasses.

25. The home of the Fishermen's Protective Union was in _____, Trinity Bay.
27. Sir William _____ hated the fact that merchants controlled Newfoundland fishermen.
28. If fishermen left England too late, all the good _____ would be taken by other fishermen.
29. The Fishermen's Union Trading Company would purchase fish from fishermen for _____.
30. Merchants fitted _____ with food, gear and clothing.
- ### Down
2. Fish that were preserved heavy salt were called _____ fish.
3. The French capitol of Newfoundland was _____.
4. This was where the best known whaling site was located in Labrador.
6. The French Treaty Shore was the area between Pointe Riche and Cape _____.
7. This group of people from France and Spain hunted whales off the coast of Labrador in the 1530s.

9. Once the _____ of Utrecht was signed, the English ruled Newfoundland.
10. _____ were garments worn by early fishermen.
12. The French fished on the _____ for most of the year.
15. The French fished from _____ on the sides of ships.
18. Whales were killed with _____ and towed ashore.
20. _____ was cut from whales and heated, transforming it into oil.
21. _____ was shipped to Europe in barrels and was used in lighting and manufacturing.
23. Port Union is the only union-built town in _____ America.
24. Whales were killed as they swam through the _____ of Belle Isle.
26. If fishermen left England too early, they would get caught in the _____ around Newfoundland's coastline.