

The New Republic Review

Across

- 6. remaining independent and not taking sides in an issue
- 9. a tax on an imported good
- 12. man-made waterway that lowered the cost of shipping goods and facilitated Westward expansion
- 14. created a 4-part plan to build the national economy
- 16. Jefferson and Madison opposed Hamilton's financial plan because they thought it only benefited the---
- 18. Gibbons v. Ogden addressed the issue of--
- 19. first President of the United States

Down

- 1. Supreme Court Justice whose decisions emphasized the supremacy of federal laws over state laws
- 2. Embargo Act and the War of 1812 both dealt with conflicts involving
- 3. created by a disagreement over Hamilton's financial plan
- 4. doubled the size of the US and gave it control of the Mississippi
- 5. farmers revolted over a tax; collapsed when Washington made a show of force
- 7. Washington cautioned against them in his Farewell Address
- 8. court case that established the precedent for judicial review

- 10. Supreme Court decision about the national bank that reinforced the elastic clause and declared the states had no right to interfere with the federal government's rights
- 11. body of advisors to the President; a precedent established by Washington
- 13. man-made modification to the physical landscape that allowed people to ship goods by water more easily
- 15. Proclamation of Neutrality, the Embargo Act, and the Monroe Doctrine all attempted to avoid conflict with--
- 17. invented by Robert Fulton, allowed for easier shipping of goods down a river, led to growth of river-side cities like St. Louis and New Orleans