

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Outsiders

Across

5. The loss of respect, honor, or esteem; shame
 8. The quality or state of being aloof, distant or reserved
 9. Ugly or unpleasant in disposition or temper
 10. To cry or wail lustily
 13. Not credulous; disinclined or indisposed to believe
 14. Brave, spirited, noble-minded, or chivalrous

15. A person incapable of serious, connected thought

Down

1. To draw back or tense the body, as from pain or from a blow
 2. Not able to be fathomed, or completely understood
 3. Utterly unconcerned about the consequences of some action; without caution; careless

4. To utter words indistinctly, or in a low-tone, often as if talking to oneself; murmur
 6. Pertaining to, characteristic of, or acting like a rogue
 7. To shake with a slight but rapid motion; vibrate tremendously
 11. To have a gloomy or threatening look
 12. Skill employed in a shrewd or sly manner, as in deceiving

Word Bank

Cunning

Unfathomable

Disgrace

Wincing

Incredulous

Bawl

Aloofness

Quivering

Gallantly

Ornery

Muttered

Scatterbrained

Roguishly

Scowled

Reckless