

The Power to Change

Across

- 8. identify similarities and differences
- 9. to form by combining parts or elements into a single or unified piece
- 10. a secondary plot that occurs along with a main plot

Down

- 1. states the main ideas of a paragraph
- 2. study of a work of literature to evaluate and interpret elements that affect a reader's understanding or opinion of the work

3. a kind of inference since it is a logical guess or assumption about something that has not happened yet

4. writers statements about the meaning and importance of the details and

5. type of literary genre that tells a fictional story. Plot is revealed through the actions, speech, and thoughts of its characters

6. includes both where and when the action takes place

7. make a logical guess or conclusion based on textual evidence