

The Quest of the Kite Runner

Across

2. The difficulties of getting this make it nearly impossible for Sohrab to get to the United States.
4. Takes Sohrab from the orphanage.
7. The smile at the end of the novel gives Amir this.
9. The place to go.

11. Makes Amir realize how bad the country has become.

12. Sohrab's attempt at this makes Amir pray once again.

Down

1. This makes Amir's travels very hard.

3. The running of the kite by Amir at the end of the novel signifies that Amir is finally willing to _____ someone other than himself.

5. Throughout his quest Amir begins to find this.

6. Aids in Amir's revelation.

8. The stated reason to go is Rahim Khan's _____.

10. The quester.