

The Symbolism of Names

Across

- 4. From the Hebrew name בְּנֵימִין (Binyamin) meaning "son of the south" or "son of the right hand".
- 7. A girl's name of French origin meaning "pledged to God".
- 8. Name of Hebrew or Greek origin; means "appointed by God", "sacred name".
- 11. In Hebrew, this name means: God will add.
- 12. This Welsh name symbolizes: War leader; gift of splendor.

Down

- 1. Name derived from Greek νίκη (nike) meaning "victory" and λαός (laos) meaning "people".

- 2. This saint was a 4th-century bishop from Anatolia who, according to legend, saved the daughters of a poor man from lives of prostitution.
- 3. Common given name for females; derived from Latin with the meaning in Hebrew of "God is gracious".
- 5. Derived from the Latin Philippus, which is from the Greek Philippos (lover of horses). The name is composed of the elements philos (loving) and hippos (horse).

- 6. Name of Welsh origin. It originates from the Brythonic name Drust or Drustanus. It derives from a stem meaning "noise", seen in the modern Welsh noun trwst (plural trystau) and the verb trystio "to clatter". The name has also been interpreted as meaning "bold."
- 9. The name of English, Welsh origin meaning "white shadow, white wave".
- 10. A boy's name of Hebrew origin meaning "Jehovah is his God".