

The Tell-Tale Heart

Across

- 2. Who wrote "The Tell-Tale Heart"?
- 3. What type of irony shows an outcome that is totally different from what the reader/audience expects?
- 4. How many nights does the narrator peek in on the old man before he decides to kill him?
- 7. Who is telling the story?
- 8. What is the literary device where a writer uses words that appeal to our five senses?
- 10. What does the old man have that the narrator hates enough to kill him?

- 11. The narrator compares the sound he hears much to the sound that a _____ makes.

Down

- 1. Who comes to investigate a shriek that the neighbors had heard?
- 5. Under what does the narrator hide the dismembered body of the old man?
- 6. What type of irony is where the reader/audience knows something the characters do not know?
- 9. The narrator believes he hears the sound of the old man's _____ while he is being interrogated.