Name:	Date:	Period:
-------	-------	---------

The US Becomes an Industrial Power

Across

- 3. money raised for a business venture
- 8. discounts given by RR companies to large customers
- 10. shares in a corporation
- 12. money given by the government to support activity that will benefit the public
- 16. Successful powerful businessmen who amassed great wealth, created many jobs and gave back to the community (colleges, libraries)
- 18. a worker hired to replace a striking worker
- 24. a worker hired to replace a striking worker
- 25. dividing up business in an area and fixing prices
- 27. an agreement that sets out working conditions (hours, wages, benefits)
- 29. organization of workers to do their jobs until their demands are met
- 31. the economic system where businesses are owned by private citizens
- 33. controlling industry from raw materials to the finished product

- 34. court order to do nor not to do something
- 35. organization of workers joined together for better conditions

Down

- 1. the portion of the population considered as buyers
- 2. a person opposed to organized government
- 4. refusal by union workers to do their jobs until their demands are met
- 5. a new way to do something
- 6. groups of corporations run by a single board of directors
- 7. a businessman who uses unethical tactics to create a monopoly, raise prices and exploit workers
- 9. process where a union negotiates with management for a contract for its members
- 11. 19th century government policy of hands offnot regulating business
- 13. a person who wants much change in a short time
- 14. equally dependent on each other

- 15. when you make large quantities of a product quickly and cheaply
- 17. identical parts of a tool or instrument that are made by machine
- 19. person who invents money in a business to make
- 20. production method where workers add parts to a product that move along on a belt
- 21. to combine into a larger system or company
- 22. place where people labor for long hours, low pay and bad condidtions
- 23. one who gives his/her wealth to benefit humankind
- 26. business owned by investors who buy shares of stock
- 28. a grant by the government giving an inventor the sole right to make, use or sell his/her invention for a certain period of time
- 30. company that completely controls the market of a given industry
- 32. system of connected railroad lines