

The Underground Railroad by Colson Whitehead

Across

4. Cora's master.
8. The third state Cora Travels through.
12. Cora says that she _____ her mother, but her actions belie the words.
13. Who comes with a group of three black men to rescue Cora from Ridgeway?
16. She is a third-generation slave who has lived on a Georgia plantation since she was born.
17. Ceasar is torn limb from limb by a rabid _____?
18. Sam and his wife Ethel hid Cora in the eaves of their _____.
25. The first job Cora takes in South Carolina is as a:
26. Through a hole in the wall of the attic that Cora is staying in she can see a park where festivals are held every Friday and runaways swing from the _____.
29. Cora's fellow prisoner who is shot in the face for singing.
31. What disease has taken over much of Tennessee?
32. Cora tries to _____ a child from from Terrance's blows after he spills a drop of wine on his cuff.
34. The first state that Cora lives in and the place that the story begins in.
37. Cora's mother
39. Martin and Ethel are tied to a tree and
40. Ridgeway packs Cora into his _____ and sets off towards Tennessee.
41. Whose house gets burned down?
42. Sam also tells her that Ridgeway is alive but his _____ is in tatters.

44. As they eat dinner together Ridgeway tells Cora the story of _____'s capture and subsequent death.
 45. The second state Cora travels through.
 46. The slave catcher chasing after them.
 47. Cora is stuck in the attic for many
 48. The maid that Cora must hid from in fear of her reporting her to state authorities.
 49. The government in South Carolina has termed what when Cora and Ceasar first arrive there?
 50. After Royal's _____, Cora admits that she loved him, and she has a dream wherein they consummate their relationship.
 51. Another more cruel master that has been beating children since he was a child...
 52. The last state that Cora must travel to in the book.
- Down
1. The first character that helps Ceasar and Cora get to the underground railroad.
 2. Ridgeway is quiet _____ with Cora and capturing her.
 3. When Cora escapes from the Randall plantation she takes her _____ with her just as her mother did.
 5. When Sam and Cora are reunited he tells Cora that Terrance Randall is _____.
 6. The character that asks Cora to run away with him.
 7. Royal is seen as the most _____ character of the book.
 9. A prominent political figure in the farm community
 10. Cora is _____ to become romantically involved with anyone because her mother abandoned her when she was a child.
 11. Who comes to rescue Cora from Ridgeway and Boseman?

14. The station agent in North Carolina.
15. Whose farm does Cora stay at while in Indiana?
19. A peculiar 10-year-old, he is Ridgeway's driver and a former slave.
20. One night while Ridgeway buys Cora a new _____ and takes her out to dinner.
21. Where does Ceasar work in South Carolina?
22. A renowned orator of mixed race
23. The first place Cora travels in the underground railroad.
24. But Cora expresses emotional _____ in front of Royal.
27. Martin's wife
28. The second job Cora gets in South Carolina is:
30. The character that unexpectedly follows Cora and Ceasar on their escape from the Randall Plantation.
33. In the book North Carolina is in the midst of a state-sponsored genocide killing its slaves and replacing them with underpaid _____?
35. Ridgeway's colleague who wears a necklace made of human ears.
36. Boseman attempts to _____ Cora as they sleep on the road.
38. Martin Wells is the son of a recently deceased _____?
43. Sam tells Cora that doctors are experimenting with back men and infecting them with