

The Vietnam War

Across

1. Female North Vietnamese radio announcer whose broadcasts were designed to erode morale of US troops.
3. American pickup from Vietnamese, meaning "Let's get out of here!"
5. US troops' use of hand grenades to kill their own sergeants or officers for the alleged unnecessary risking of soldiers' lives.
6. Hidden explosive designed to injure the enemy.

9. US troops' slang for kilometers, measuring distance in Vietnam.
11. A period of leave, or "rest and relaxation" for US troops.
12. The lead and most dangerous position on a patrol into enemy territory.
13. Sharpened spear hidden in the ground designed to impale unwary US troops.
14. US plane capable of circling over a target and firing tens of thousands of shells into a small area

15. Ho Chi Minh, leader of North Vietnam.

Down

2. Nickname for female Red Cross workers who served in Vietnam.
4. Large US helicopter gunship.
7. Your own forces' gunfire or bombing.
8. US program of counting enemy bodies to measure success or failure of missions.
10. Derisive US slang term for Vietnamese.